

SHABBA RANKS born Rexton Rawlston Gordon on January 17th in Sturgetown St. Ann, Jamaica blessed with a powerful baritone voice and a knack for rhyme, he started out during the early 80's studying DJ's like Brigadier Jerry, Yellow man, and his idol Josey Wales. Influenced by such "toaster" {reggae's version of rappers} as Josey Wales and Yellowman, he began performing in Kingston in 1980 and soon was recording Jamaica hit singles with such leading record producers as King Jammy and Bobby Digital. Grammy Award winning Shabb Ranks has always mastered a brand of explosive intimacy, working the studio in refreshing ways, giving the world hit after hit, bass after bass and masterfully stripping away bass and reverb when needed to be. He became with his talent, has charisma and his singular voice a monarch of the music.

Jamaica dancehall emperor, Shabba Ranks demonstrated the tremendous possibilities of blending his brand of reggae with the urban contemporary R&B and innovative sound are making permanent and long-lasting in roads into the music industry. Acknowledged phenomenal dancehall emperor Shabba Ranks makes the reggae dancehall music for everybody.

To all of Shabba's fans he is presently in the studio putting the finishing touches on soon to be released album. As everyone says it, he's nothing but the emperor of dancehall reggae, the biggest selling and highest profile star of dancehall reggae.

Big up to the world global my family, and all my fans one love.
